1. Local Business Impact Assessment - Flood Damages

Flood disasters have caused almost $200,000,000 in damages around the Milwaukee metro area since 2008. For businesses, the cost of recovery and impact on growth can take years. The Urban Planning program at UWM is conducting a study to understand business flood experience and recovery needs.

We would like your help, as a business owner, in identifying the cost of damages, lost production time, financial impact over time, and other problems. Approximately 100 subjects will participate in this study. Please make an attempt to answer the survey as completely and accurately as possible. A report will be shared with a task force consisting of local economic development leaders, business organizations, and disaster management professionals.

Your responses are voluntary and completely confidential, and no individual participant will ever be identified with his/her answers. You may choose to withdraw from this study at any time without penalty. Data from this study will be saved on a password protected computer. Only the involved researchers Sammis White, Ph.D., Cal Stoffel, and Cate Rahmlow will have access to the information. Identifying data will remain anonymous and confidential. Reported information will be compiled to protect your anonymity.

Risks to participants are considered minimal. There will be no costs for participating, nor will you benefit from participating, other than to further research. You may receive this survey from more than one organization. If you have already filled it out, thank you for participating; there is no need to respond again.

By completing and submitting the attached survey, you are voluntarily agreeing to take part in this study. Completing the survey indicates that you have read this consent form and have had all of your questions answered, and that you are 18 years of age or older.

For more information about the study or study procedures, please contact Cate Rahmlow at 414-302-2828, or email Cal Stoffel at stoffelc@uwm.edu.

You may contact the UWM IRB at 414-229-3173 or irbinfo@uwm.edu for questions about your rights or complaints towards your treatment as a research subject.

Thank you for your participation!
